

Contents

Contents .....	3
From the Editors .....	7
Editorial Debate
Roger Cotterrell Golden Ages: Notes on the future of sociology of law, with some comments on its past, on Poland, and on Jazz .....	9
Debate on the Future of Sociology of Law .....	25
Future of Sociology of Law. Debate at the University of Warsaw, May 2010 .....	27
Mavis Maclean To balance the needs of a diverse society and the human rights .....	27
Hanne Petersen Addressing emerging transnational law and emerging world citizens .....	29
Grażyna Skąpska Coordination of polycentric, pluralistic, dynamic and globalizing society by contemporary law .....	34
Barry Sullivan Formal and informal aggrandizement of executive power .....	44
Jean van Houtte Facts without theories and theories without facts are neither useful nor valuable .....	57
Fritz Sack Sociology of deviant behavior cannot be separated from sociology of law .....	60
Teresa Picontó Novales To mitigate the formalism of a somewhat stagnant juridical science .....	68
Vittorio Olgiati Collapse of universalistic pretension of the legal architecture of Western-centred Modernity .....	73
Janine R. Wedel Focusing on players and their informal activities to get to the bottom of power .....	81
Małgorzata Fuszara Including new areas of reflection on law, such as feminist study of law .....	85
Iwona Jakubowska-Branicka Positive law and social sense of justice .....	90
Jan Winczorek To make lawyers aware that effective behaviour control demands normative control .....	96
Anna Krajewska Podgórecki's megasociology combines description of social processes, socio-technical directions and relevant moral perspective .....	103

	Paulina Polak Surpassing the old nation state law paradigm .....	106
	Katarzyna Dzieniszewska-Naroska New technologies introduce new areas where unofficial law is created and new challenges for official law .....	115
	Jacek Kurczewski To de-construct and re-construct fundamental institution of our public life seems the permanent task of sociology of law in future .....	119
	Masayuki Murayama Introduction to the Conference on Traffic Accident and Divorce, Meiji University, Tokyo, 2009 .....	135
Articles	Masayuki Murayama Is there the Japanese Way of Dispute Resolution? – Disputing Process in Traffic Accident and Divorce Cases – .....	137
	Tomohiko Maeda Claiming Damages in Automobile Accidents in Japan .....	155
	Teiko Tamaki “Legal needs” of the Parties in Divorce Cases in Japan .....	167
	Marijke ter Voert Divorce in the Netherlands .....	187
	Mavis Maclean Legal Needs of Disputants in Divorce Cases in the UK .....	201
	Małgorzata Fuszara Divorce in Poland .....	211
	Jacek Kurczewski Traffic Disputes in Poland .....	229
Research in Progres	Michał Batorowicz Desirable Risk? Car and the Social Memory .....	257

	Adriana Mica
	Consequences of Diffusion of Innovations – Trap-Neuter-Return in Bucharest, Romania .....	269
	Edyta Radzewicz
	Irish Travellers: Focus on the Family .....	291
	Łukasz Goryszewski
	Car as a Status Symbol among the Polish Upper Class .....	307
	Aleksandra Niżyńska
	Self-governance in the Polish Bar: the example of legal training .....	327
	Anna Konieczna-Purchała
	Perceptions of Power Relations in a Local Community .....	345
Book Reviews	Jan Winczorek
	New Empirical Research in Sociology of Adjudication .....	357
Conferences	Masayuki Murayama
	The Sho Sato Conference on Japanese Law 2011: The Japanese Legal System: An Era of Transformation .....	365
Obituaries	Iwona Jakubowska-Branicka
	Professor Lester Mazor in memoriam .....	367
About the Authors	.....	369

